1. [f. 61] 1623: LORD DEPUTY FALKLAND'S WARRANT FOR A COMMISSION
TO ENQUIRE ABOUT WASTES IN THE WOODS IN THE TERRITORY OF RANELAGH, COUNTY WICKLOW¹

[22 OCTOBER 1623]

By the lord deputy

Falkland

Whereas the lands in the territory of Ranelagh in the county of Wicklow are by since found to belong to the king's majesty and we are informed that since the finding of the said office much waste and spoil hath been made of the woods and timber thereon growing to the great loss of his Majesty's behalf, these are therefore to will and require you to draw up a commission in due form directed to our trusty and well beloved Sir William Brabazon, knight, Sir William Parsons, knight and baronet,² Master of the Court of Wards and Liveries and surveyor general of his highness's kingdom of Ireland, John Brereton, esquire, his Majesty's sergeant at law, Sir Henry Bealing, knight,³ Edward Bolton, esquire,⁴ solicitor his Majesty's solicitor general, Captain Dennis Dale, Calcott Chambré, esquire,⁵ Robert Pont, clerk, or to any three of them whereof Sir William Brabazon, knight, Sir William Parsons, knight and baronet, John Brereton, esquire, his Majesty's sergeant at law, or Edward Bolton, esquire, his Majesty's solicitor general, to be always one; to enquire as well by view as by the oaths of good and lawful men of the same county by whom such waste hath been committed, when and to what value. And the same to be returnable with as much expedition as may be [] XXXXX
XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX. If doing whereof this shall be your warrant. Given at his Majesty's Castle of Dublin the 22nd day of October 1623.

To his Majesty's learned council or any of them.

2. [f. 62] 1624: LICENCE FOR GEORGE FORTE & MATTHEW MORRIS TO
TAN & DRESS LEATHER IN MARYBOROUGH & THE LIBERTY THEREOF [1 JULY 1624]

By the lord deputy

Falkland

These are to will and require you presently upon sight hereof to draw up a fiant in due form of law containing a license unto George Forte and Mathew Morris during

¹ The headings of warrants 1–34 are written in a different (later, probably eighteenth-century) hand from that of the secretary.

² William Parsons (1570?–1650), later lord justice of Ireland (see DIB).

³ Sir Henry Bealing (or Bellings) (c. 1603–77), father of the lawyer and historian, Richard Bellings (see under Richard Bellings, DIB).

⁴ Edward Bolton (1592–1659), solicitor general of Ireland (see DIB).

⁵ Calcott Chambré, d. 1635.

⁶ This is how it appears in the manuscript and there is no obvious explanation.

⁷ John Veele, Irish secretary of state.

6. [f. 66r] 1625: A WARRANT FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF SIR EDWARD VILLIERS, LORD PRESIDENT OF MUNSTER, IN THE PLACE OF THE EARL OF THOMOND, DECEASED

[24 MAY 1625]

By the lord deputy

Falkland

Whereas the king's most excellent majesty that now is taking into his gracious princely knowledge and observation the good part, valour and discretion of Sir Edward Villiers, knight, hath thought good in his princely wisdom to make choice of him to succeed the earl of Thomond,¹⁹ deceased, late president of the province of Munster in this realm in the government of that province and to that end hath been pleased by his highness's letters unto us directed, dated at Westminster the sixth day of this present month of May, to require us with the advice of some of his highness's learned Council here to make forth unto the said Sir Edward Villiers such letters patents, commissions, warrants and instructions for the exercising and enjoying of the office of lord president of Munster with all authority, privileges, immunities and pre-eminence thereunto in anywise appertaining and in his large, ample and beneficial manner to all intents and purposes as Sir Henry Brunkard, the Lord Danvers,²⁰ the earl of Thomond, or any other president of Munster or of the province of Connacht in this realm, have had

¹⁶ Samuel Mayart (1587–c. 1647), lawyer (see DIB).

¹⁷ Gerard (Garret) Lowther (d. 1624), justice of the common pleas in Ireland (see DIB).
